Ballroom Branch lectures will be held in the Nine Kings Ballroom of the Lancaster London. Situated opposite Hyde Park the hotel offers a prestigious venue for the IDTA's London Seminar. The hotel is situated at Lancaster Gate tube and parking is available on Sundays around the hotel. Trade Stands will be located in the Nine Kings Foyer during the day.

BALLROOM BRANCH ADMISSION

Entry to the Ballroom Branch lectures is free to IDTA members on production of their 2011 membership cards. Provisional members may attend - tickets are £7.50 for the day. IDTA members may wish to sponsor their students to attend (16 years and over) - tickets are available in advance from IDTA Head Office priced at £15 for the day (please note attendance at a professional teaching conference will result in a loss of amateur status for students). Members' spouses may also attend, tickets are available in advance priced at £15 for the day from IDTA Head Office. Qualified dance teachers from recognised dance teaching associations may attend the Seminar - tickets are £25.00 for the day and should be booked in advance.

THEATRE BRANCH ADMISSION

The format of the workshops for 2011 has been updated. Members and students may select, in advance to participate in either Group A or Group B (and watch the alternative workshops).

Entry to the Theatre Branch workshops is free to IDTA members on presentation of their current membership card. If you wish to spectate you do not need to book a place, please show your 2011 membership card on entry to the Westbourne Suite. Space on the floor is limited, so anyone wishing to participate in the workshops (member or student) must book their place in advance. If you or your students (maximum of three students per member) would like to take part in the workshops please complete the booking form attached indicating which group of workshops you would like to take part in.

Students must be 16 years or over or hold a current Intermediate Performers Card. Students aged 13-15 years may attend to watch the lectures only. Student ticket price £15.00 per person to perform or spectate. Non-members are welcome to spectate, tickets £15.00 per person. Provisional members ticket price £7.50 per person to perform or spectate. Please return the completed form to IDTA Head Office with a cheque for the appropriate amount made payable to 'IDTA Ltd'. If you are unsure of the total price of your order please forward the booking form and an invoice will be sent to you, alternatively please telephone Carol at Head Office on 01273 685652.

Everyone participating in the lectures will be issued with a coloured wristband (their ticket), one for each group.

Separate seating areas for members (teacher) and students will be available and IDTA officials will be on hand to direct you. A coffee bar area will be located in the Westbourne Suite for delegates who wish to catch up with friends or a break from the lectures.
